“ I remember the entire Combs family so fondly. Harry was always such a card. I remember him once having a new pair of boots on and he still had the tag on them. When I told him he forgot to take the tag off, he told me he hadn't forgotten, He wanted everyone to know he had new boots. That was Harry, a dry sense of humor and a easy laugh and smile. I am so sorry for your family's loss.

“ I remember Harry and your family when you lived south of us in Iowa the time he taught school here. I got to know him as teacher, neighbor and friend during my last year of high school and after. Will Angus, the Hillyer twins and I came down to your farm near Fairfax on a "M-80 run" a few years after school, and you all had us in for pizza, popcorn and lots of fellowship and conversation; what a wonderful evening with the Combs family! I've thought of all of you over the years since. I'm very sorry to hear of his passing and am thinking of you Holly, Jason and families. Prayers to you!!!
