“ We were all so sad to hear of Jack's passing. We so much enjoyed talking with him. I met Jack at various music events around Kearney and we often sat together comparing notes and stories. We found that we had ballroom dancing and sailing in common.

Jack and I sailed together several times at Harlan Lake.

Jack then donated 4 large boxes of sailing novels and textbooks that he had to the Harlan Lake Yacht Club and they have and are being used by area sailors.

What a brilliant and fascinating fellow! Jack you will be missed!

“ Jack was my mom Patty Cudaback Klinkacek's cousin, although the whole family called him Cousin Jack. When we lived in Indiana he would sometimes fly his plane down from Michigan and visit us.

Jack was the family's uber nerd, just endlessly curious and full of knowledge and eager to engage. I loved talking to him. I loved hearing about the Cudaback family history from him. He really lived his life. He will be sorely missed.

“ Yes, you always knew when Jack was in the room. Always enjoyed talking to him about music. He would usually ask me to tell the story of how my last name was pronounced differently by my southern relatives. Then he would just laugh. He will be missed...
