“ To the family of Jeanette Hansen: May it comfort you to know that death cannot take away the happiness you shared, that grief cannot diminish the important ways your loved one touched your life, that sorrow will fade in time, but love remains forever. I am very sorry for your loss. I did know Jeanette well but had been corresponding with her for a few years. She was a special friend of my brother-in-law, Leroy Hackbart. They provided each other with a much needed companionship for which I am grateful. Thank you again, Debra for letting me know. Elaine Hackbart

“ I remember going to church in Kearney with Jeanette. She loved the hymn singing and had a beautiful voice. She was always very nice to me when I would go to the family home to see my friend, her daughter, Deb.
