“ I had the great honor of playing the piano next to Lela at the organ for many worship services at Kearney First Baptist. It has been several years since we picked out music, played it, and lamented our mistakes after the service. Neither of us wanted our missed notes to interfere with the messages in the great old hymns. She had music in her soul and it came out through the keyboard. One of the most special times to me was when we played a medley of patriotic songs. She was a delight to know and is, no doubt, enjoying and adding to all the melodies of the heavenly choirs. She also teased Rob often and was overly grateful for any little thing he did to help her around her house. We both were blessed to know her. -- Val and Rob Gwin

“ From Georgia Cleland and the Cleland family, Lela was a very dear friend that I knew since we were both children. I have so many fond memories of the times we were together. She was a very sweet, caring person and I know she is with the Lord now. I'm so sorry I can't attend the viewing, but I'm in the hospital. I wanted so much to say hello to John and all the family there. Please know Lela was loved by all of us and that our prayers are with you.

“ So many wonderful visits with Lela. Everything from gardening, to baking, to parties, music, her life in Kearney and so many other places. The visits about life were rich. The visits about politics challenging and not always agreeable. The visits about faith edifying, deep, and thoughtful and often led to times of worship together. Lela loved to talk! Oh my how she loved to talk!

We laughed together. We cried together. Meaningful times. My times in prayer with her will be forever treasured. My family always knew we were loved by Lela and we could count on her prayers.

It's hard to imagine a world without Lela living in it. She was a mentor, a sister in Christ, feisty as all get out and stubborn as a mule but she loved deeply and cared in more ways than many will ever know. I still can hear her laugh, see her smile and smell the rose scent on her neck when we hugged.

I've been blessed to call her my friend.

My love and prayers to each of you!

“ Lela was my friend and other mother for over 49 years. Our friendship started when I dated her oldest son Joe. Even though they moved away, she continued to be a mentor in my life. I will always be thankful for her encouraging me to think beyond human limitations to thinking of the God who is not limited. She taught me to pray and to believe those prayers could be answered, that the kingdom of heaven is within us. It changed my life. I have so many good memories of Lela, her husband Dwayne who walked me down the aisle at my wedding, and all her children now grown. She was a great cook, my favorite meal was her secret chicken wings and her home baked bread. When I was 16 she crocheted me a poncho. That summer I spent with the family in Santa Fe was the highlight of high school. She will be greatly missed this side of heaven. My sympathy and prayers go out to all of you.
