In June 2017 Shane was blessed with his daughter, Victoria Marie and she became his biggest focus in life. Shane had a genuine love for all animals a trait he inherited from Grandma Cathy. He never met a dog that he did not seem to have a loving connection with. Shane was deeply committed to his beloved Huskers and Broncos. Rain or shine he always believed the best of his favorite teams.

“ Shane stayed overnight with us when his grandma was gone to job related meetings. I made home-made macaroni/cheese. He told me it wasn't yellow enough (he was use to kraft macaroni/cheese) so I put some yellow food coloring in it and he ate it. I also soon learned he did not like catsup. He always had a big smile (except when his swiss steak had catsup on it). Prayers for all. Jan Burton

“ I only knew Shane in passing. However, he made an impact and we liked to tease each other about shopping at rivaling gas stations. He was always smiling and knew how to make those around him smile. His loss is surreal and my thoughts and prayers go out to the family and friends.
