Agnes lived her life positively, focusing on family and friends, uplifting those around her. Her indomitable spirit could be felt by all who had the pleasure of knowing her. Her faith sustained her and gave her strength.

Agnes was born to Fredrick and Emma Wieland Seifer in Grant, NE on June 2, 1917. The family soon moved to the ranch 21 miles north of Sutherland just above the Birdwood Creek. Agnes attended District 6 country school in McPherson County. She graduated from Sutherland High School in 1936. She was able to attend High School by living and working for the Shoup family northwest of Sutherland.

Agnes was united in marriage with Edgar "Bob" King, June 25, 1936, in the Shoup home. Agnes and Bob lived in Sutherland, North Platte, Eustis, and in Farnam where they raised their son's Larry and Terry. The family operated King Lumber and Hardware. After selling the business they moved to the Kearney area, Agnes continued her love for retail and interaction with customers at Kaufmann and Wernert Department Store. Bob and Agnes were always ready for a card game and were active in many local Gibbon activities. Bob past away in January 11, 1994, a few days short of his 85th birthday.

Agnes's zest for life was demonstrated when at the age of 79, she and Harold Liggett were married on August 3, 1996. Harold and Agnes enjoyed nearly 17 years together, the last few years at Northridge Retirement Community in Kearney. Harold passed away at 95 on May 23, 2013.

Agnes was a member of the Shelton Methodist Church, American Legion Auxiliary, and Faithful Rebekah Lodge 89. She was a founding member of Gibbon's Smile City Kitchen Band
