“ I grew up going to Grandma and Al’s house in Salina. I have great memories at their house off Markley Road. Al used to point out all the deer they’d have in their backyard. I have vivid memories sitting at their dinner table with the windows open, feeling the hot summer breeze and being overwhelmed by the deafening cries of the cicadas. Any overstimulation I had was always quelled by Al’s amazing cooking, a game of pool in their basement, and an extended session in their massage chair. Al also took me on my first (and only) motorcycle ride. As a kid, Grandma and Al’s was a place where I could play pool, throw rocks at deer, join a biker gang, test their massage chair for quality control, eat amazing food, and learn the secrets to a great martini. Sending my condolences and respects to Al’s family.
