“ Thoughts and prayers go to all the family. Didn't know Alta, but went to school with her kids. Never easy losing a parent. Charlotte Burr

“ Wow - Bud and Alta's home was where I spent much of my high school years. The Furry home was my second home as I was very good friends with Aaron, who my son is named in honor. Alta was one of the most energetic persons I ever knew. She rarely sat and was always busy. She was always working in the garden, canning, making clothed items, and restoring furniture. She could do anything and if she decided to make something it was always of superior craftsmanship. She and Bud worked together in doing a lot or restoration work. After I moved to Virginia, Alta and Bud visited me while they were on a trip to Pennsylvania visiting Alta relation. It was always good to talk with Alta and when I was traveled back to Nebraska I tried to see her as she brought me back to the fun days of growing up. Rest in Peace and now enjoy Bud, Ross, and Aaron who you are reunited. Jim Bish
