My dearest Andrea Estephany Orozco Robledo, these past few days have been the hardest we've had. The impact you placed on our family as well as so many others will never be forgotten. You created such an incomprehensible legacy for yourself. Always fighting, always striving for the best, never settling, always radiating joy. We ache for you and will miss you for a lifetime. The only thing that has seemed to bring us comfort is seeing all of the peoples lives you touched and all of the people who loved you. Hearing all their stories about how you walked in and changed them. That's what you did, your radiance could never be contained. You truly were an angel here on earth. You were a safe place for us. Someone we could come to with anything no matter what time of day. You were supportive and oh so kind. We've been reflecting on your life, your personality, and the impact you made in your 28 years on this earth. Your laughter and love for life was infectious. Now that you are gone, our world is darker. But we're here, trying to see the light and be at peace like I know you would want us to be. We'll fight to the ends of this earth in hopes of one day making it to being half of the spirit you are. If we've learned anything, it's that the world needs more people like you: Full of life, kindness, and laughter. You are so loved and so very missed. We loved you with everything we ever had and we will continue to do so until we perish. We'll cherish the memories we were so lucky to share with you. We will keep you alive through stories, pictures, legacies, and so so much love. Your name will not be forgotten. We ache for you, but we will meet you again my love.

“ With our deepest sympathy, we send prayers to her family. Andrea was a beautiful soul and friend to our son growing up. She made it a point to reach out to us through the years and that meant so much to us. Her smile brightened a room and made the world around her shine. Our hearts are filled with sadness losing her, and though this is goodbye for now, we can be assured that the Lord promises we'll see her again. May God help her family through this difficult time.

Sincerely,
