“ To add to my earlier comments: this a.m. on PBS Josh Groban sang "You'll Never Walk Alone". That brought back memories of Bettelee directing the Wilcox HS chorus. I seem to remember we sang that song numerous times. Such great meaning.

“ Mrs. Lewis held, and holds such an important place in my life. Thanks to Mrs. Lewis, I love music in all its forms; I still play cello; I gained confidence; I experienced heart-breaking beauty when our school choir sang "How Lovely is Thy Dwelling Place." Her legacy will continue through generations of her students.

I was so sad to hear the news that Bettelee had passed away. She was a wonderful friend, neighbor, and second 'mom' to Sarah and me when we lived in Kearney. She was quite the role model for living a full and active life!*

“ Mrs. Lewis was a blessing to every student she taught giving them the gift of music. She taught myself, my husband, my brother and my mother (MaryAnne Heidemann). I think of Mrs. Lewis often as my name is now Lewis and when I'm called Mrs. Lewis, my amazing teacher always comes to mind. She will always be here with us as her music will carry on in her students.

“ I'm so sorry that I am unable to attend Bettelee's memorial service on Wednesday. I will be on the road early that morning to Springfield, IL. I do wish for you to know just how glad I was that Bettelee performed the last two concerts of the Hastings Symphony's 90th season this past April. She was a wonderful spirit, and in fact all of us will greatly miss her presence on the stage. Think about it: Of the 90 years that the HSO has performed concerts, Bettelee was there for 78 of those seasons. Truly remarkable, and something I'm quite certain has never been matched. I loved her smile, her support, and her generosity. Thank you, Bettelee, for making my time as conductor of the HSO both memorable and complete. I know Heaven's music is a little brighter and spirited with your presence from here to eternity.

“ What a blessing to those who were touched by her musical talents! She was my first music teacher at Wilcox, then I sang in the church choir she directed at Funk. So enjoyed working with her, and in later years, hearing her play with the Kearney Symphony. She leaves behind a rich, musical legacy and many, many memories who were lucky enough to have had the pleasure of being taught, or working with her.
