Betty was born on May 16, 1932 in Grand Island, NE to Wayne and Lula (Neimoth) Kimball. She attended school in Grand Island and graduated from Grand Island Senior High School with the class of 1950, where she was drill team captain her senior year. Betty then attended the Texas State College for Women for two years where she majored in Physical Education. After school, she relocated back to Grand Island to work for the Bell Telephone Company. It was in Grand Island that she met Frederick Alman Lohmann. Betty and Fred were married in Grand Island on April 2, 1955, at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, and later moved to Kearney in 1958. Betty was a member of First Lutheran Church in Kearney until her death. Her faith was very important to her. She greatly enjoyed reading and also spending time with her granddaughter and great grandson. She was a caring woman who made an impact in many people's lives.

Surviving relatives include her daughter, Lori (Mike) Bell of Pipe Creek, TX; son, Craig (Lisa) Lohmann of Denver, CO; granddaughter, Meagan (Joe) Whitehouse of Dripping Springs, TX; great grandsons, Kol Chase Whitehouse and soon to be Wren Riley Whitehouse; nieces, nephews, other extended family and friends.

Betty was preceded in death by her parents, Wayne and Lula; husband, Fred; and her two brothers, Kenneth and Dale.
