“ When caleb was here in colorado, we met at the local 7-Eleven in my town. He offered me a job, and while the work was hard he paid extremely well. He helped keep my going in major times of hardship. If I needed to talk he was there. Caleb was an incredibly close friend to me, and while I was unable to attend the funeral, he'll be with me, because he is who encouraged me to keep moving forward no matter what happened. When he lived in Colorado, he lived in Grand Lake. Caleb was incredible, and it's truly sad to see him go.
