“ I have known Carol for many years as I also worked for over 30 years as a housekeeper at Good Sam/ Richard Young. Carol was a hard worker and a good supervisor and mentor. She knew everything about laundry and cleaning at a hospital that there was to know. Everyone liked Carol, she had a smile and a hello for everybody! Remembering Carol's smile and her contagious laugh makes me smile. I can imagine her polishing heaven's gates and greeting and smiling at everyone she sees! My sympathy to Carol's family.

“ Dear family,
My sympathies as you grieve the loss of Carol. Her smile, soft voice and appreciation left me with memories.
I helped in the process of getting into Primrose Retirement some years ago. She was eager to make a better change and I think she enjoyed her home there.
Carol's face was familiar at Primrose because you would find her in the dining room waiting for a cup of coffee. She would arrive way before the meal was ready but always eager to say hello to anyone passing by. She would be so appreciative for a warm coffee and call anyone dear.
Yes, she had a spunky side that made Carol who she was. It would keep us on our toes and also make us laugh out loud. May she be watching westerns in Heaven and sharing a cup of coffee with old friends.
God bless you all,
Lisa Asche
