Our beloved Cary Blue tragically left us unexpectedly Tuesday, October 15, 2024. He had just celebrated his 75th birthday.

Cary was born October 4, 1949, to Raymond and Nedra (Ramsey) Blue. He had one sister Marcene Bauer. Cary attended elementary school at Denman and graduated high school from Shelton. He attended 1 year of college at UNL. The next year he came back to the family farm. He continued farming until he retired in 2022. He and his father owned CR Lumber in Kenesaw from 1977 to 1989. He had a passion for life including raising lambs and was able to offer opportunities for 4-H members with the Buffalo County lamb lottery. He followed the projects to completion which gave him much joy. He loved spending time outdoors on the river, hunting and watching birds. He was a member and elder of the St. Paul Lutheran Church, Lowell. He loved the Lord!! His Church Family was very important to him.

Cary was united in marriage to Sharon Smith on March 28, 2009. He joined a ready-made family, stepdaughters Julie (John) Winkel, Sandy (Terry) Redetzke and LeAnn (Damion) Dix. The apples of his eye were his grandchildren Caitlyn and Kade Miller, Grace (Blake Brown) Redetzke, Sydney and Carter Redetzke, Olivia, Ava and Addison Dix and great grandson Clayton Brown. He and Sharon rarely missed the grandkids sports activities. After Cary retired, they built a home in Kansas to be close to family. Cary played a huge part in the house's construction and took pride in the process. The past few years had been the happiest as they settled into their new home. Cary and Sharon were enjoying life.

Cary is survived by his wife Sharon; stepdaughters; grandchildren; sister, Marcene Bauer; Nephew, Matthew Gillham; Niece, Amber (Jason) Melero; great niece and nephew, Elise and Noah; brothers and sisters in law, Dale Janitscheck, Larry (Lisa) Janitscheck, Susan (Bryce) Riessland and Janece (Donald) Ripp; many nieces, nephews and other extended family.

Cary was preceded in death by his father and mother; brother in law, John Bauer; mother and father in law, Cecil and Ethel Janitscheck.

“ *Sharon & family,
Was sorry to hear of Cary's passing. Our condolences to the Blue family and God's comfort at this difficult time. Was glad you and Cary made the Stade Reunion back in 2019 at the Lowell church then. (Had sent a card to the Shelton address, so you may not receive it with the address change; hence, the note here.) Please take care--thoughts and prayers your way!

“ We were so sorry to hear of Cary Wayne's passing. Carey and I were related as his great Grandmother Esther and my great Grandmother Lucy were sisters. My Dad, Charles Westing raised a lot of sheep by Prosser thus he and Carey Wayne had ties through the years. Carey Wayne was instrumental in helping get sheep shearers to our daughter, Kelli at the Kodiak Baptist Mission in Kodiak, Alaska, for their sheep. Sure a wonderful, kind and gentle man. Knowing what I do about sheep, he has to be patient! Carey Wayne will be missed.
