Cass graduated from University of Nebraska at Kearney in May 1997 with a double major (Bachelor of Arts degree in 7-12 History Education and 7-12 Physical Education).

Cass worked at UNK as an athletic trainer until an aneurism in 2015 left Cass quadriplegic. He relocated to a care facility in Franklin, NE, which has been his home for the past ten years. For the past three months, his mother Kathy has also lived in that facility, allowing for daily visits.

Cass enjoyed watching television, especially game shows and The History Channel, and listening to audio books (especially history) and music. He was an avid UNK fan, and enjoyed listening to their athletic events on the radio.

Cass is survived by mother Kathy Larson, uncle Kent (Cindy) Cederburg, aunt Sharon (Dan) Babl, nephews Jaden and Xander Larson, and several cousins.

Cass was preceded in death by his father, brother Morgan Larson, grandparents, and uncles Gary Cederburg, Royce Larson, and Ronnie Larson.
