

Cathy Henderson

April 23, 1964 - September 12, 2017

Cathy Henderson, 53, of Kearney, died Tuesday, September 12, 2017 at her home. A memorial service will be 2:00 p.m., Wednesday, September 20, 2017 at Horner Lieske McBride & Kuhl Funeral Chapel with lay leader Dawn Mollenkopf officiating. A time to visit with the family will follow until 4:00 p.m. Memorials are suggested to the family for Cathy's grandson's education.

Cathy was born April 23, 1964 to Louis and Georgia (Tolchin) Bisbal in Los Angeles, California. She grew up in California and attended Dana Hills High School, and then attended Chapman University in Orange, California. Cathy married Greg Henderson on April 11, 1987 in Santa Ana, California. They lived in Mission Viejo, California, where she owned and operated several nail salons. They moved to Kearney in 2005. Cathy continued her work here as a nail technician.

Cathy was young at heart and loved music. As a strong minded person she was always the "fixer". She liked to have things done her way and on her schedule, and always found a way to do so. Her grandchildren were her heart and soul, and she loved spending time with them and her daughter. She loved her husband fiercely, and took care of her family before all else.

Cathy is survived by her husband Greg of Kearney; daughter Jessica Henderson-Byrd and her husband Phillip of Kearney, grandsons, Aiden,

Jaxon, Gavin, and Christian Byrd of Kearney; brother, Jason Bisbal and wife Angela of Kearney, numerous aunts, uncles, and special friend Donna LaVertu.

Cathy was preceded in death by her parents and grandparents.

“ It's still hard to believe that Cathy is gone. She had such a big personality and zest for enjoying life. And her cakes were the bomb! She loved her family and I pray for peace and comfort for them as they try to understand why she left this world so soon. I know she will be watching them from heaven.
