“ I send my deepest condolences to the Kunisada family. Chinatsu was a kind and intelligent young woman and will be remembered as such. I met her in my French class in the Autumn of 2022. She was excellent at French and always kind to everyone, sharing her book with students who forgot theirs. She would chat with me about fashion and drawing, answering my questions about Japan. A memory I cherish and remember of her was the day I felt incredibly sad and arrived at French class in sweatpants and a sweatshirt because I did not have enough energy to put together a professional outfit. Despite this, Chinatsu complimented my sweatpants and told me that she liked the cute characters designing the pants. The characters were from Animal Crossing, and I remember talking to her about the game. Not only did she compliment me, but she listened and chatted with me, making me a little less sad. She always made an effort to make others happy in French class. Chinatsu was a wonderful, gentle, and bright individual. I hope the Kunisada family finds peace in Chinatsu's memory and know that she positively impacted my life and the lives of so many others at the university.

“ Chinatsu was so kind and thoughtful. I remember that when I sat next to Chinatsu in French class, she always shared her book with me when I didn't have mine with me. She was always cordial, and I remember her with a smile.
