“ Vinderslev Family,
My heart is so saddened to hear about this horrible news. Crystal was very dear to my heart as she was one of my favorite youth workers at Survival Skills and other programs she just seemed to always "help" with. I could always count on her--to be there to work and to reach out to so many youth who needed an active listener. She was incredible. I was over joyed when she shared with me that she was pursuing counseling. How fitting for her. I am thankful for the time that we spent together, mostly laughing. I will forever treasure those times. She was truly one of a kind. Prayers to you in this challenging time.

“ Dear Linda & Norm,
There are no words. I hope you can find some comfort in knowing many, many are holding you in their thoughts and prayers. Malachi will know his mother as a very special angel because he will forever see her through your eyes. Draw strength from the love that surrounds you.
I will keep you in my prayers.
