Dale was born in Plainview Nebraska November 7th 1952 and passed away in Syracuse Nebraska Monday January 12th 2025. His parents were Orace and Delores Jones. Unfortunately there is a lot about Dale's life that is a mystery. As far as we know he has no immediate family or relatives. He might, but we have no information about them. What we do know about him is he loved going for rides, sitting out in the sun, going for walks, playing with his magnets and blocks, lining them up or stacking them. He loved his pudding, apple sauce, ice cream and of course buttery mashed potatoes. Dale loved his drinks also, and everyone else's that were left unattended. At first, Dale didn't care for large gatherings with our family or even at outings with a lot of people. But as time passed he got used to seeing the same people like holidays or birthdays, he got used to them and accepted them. Dale became apart of our family Immediately. He was loved by everyone. Dale taught us a lot. He was an inspiration. He made us laugh when he laughed. When he spoke, we were in awe that he said something and some of the things he said were shocking and surprising. Dale loved his recliner. He would rock or tap his foot to music. He would also turn the music up if he liked it. In the past, we were told he used to go to the YMCA twice a week to dance. That would have been great to see. Dale did have a sneaky side to him to get what he wanted. Like getting our daughter Robbie to walk him knowing full well he could do it himself, or trying to sneak to the refrigerator for a can of soda. Dale was a treat to have living with us and he will never be forgotten. We love you Dale, R.I.P.
