“ Mr. Swanson's family:

I had heard on the news that an Ashland man had been killed in an accident near Kearney and when the name was released, I still did not know who it was until his picture appeared in the newspapers. We did not formally meet Mr. Swanson, but 2 different years in a row he walked by our house with his snow blower and if our driveway and sidewalk had not been done, he immediately would do it. He didn't know us, he was just doing a nice thing for someone he didn't know personally. This past winter I gave him a plate of Christmas cookies before he left. Just want everyone to know that it meant very much to us and to let his family know (of course they knew what a kind soul he was) one of the good deeds he did for the neighbors he didn't even know.
