“ Darrel Ross was a close friend of my mom's (Arlene) family the Rodriguez's since their Shelton farms were in close proximity. When Darrel moved to Sunnyvale he and my dad, Russ, became good friends. He would come by and visit and talk electronics and computers with my dad.

We always enjoyed Darrel's visits during the holidays. His cheerful disposition and smile lightened the room. Growing up we saw Darrel often and thought he was our uncle so we called him "Uncle Darrel".

When he moved back to his family farm in Shelton, we would stop by to say hi when we visited from California. He enjoyed showing us the tractors he collected and worked on. I have many fond memories of Darrel and pray that God's peace may surround his loved ones.
