

Daryl D. Calkins

June 15, 1937 - November 28, 2020

Daryl Dean Calkins, age 83, of Elm Creek, passed away Saturday, November 28, 2020 at his home. Inurnment will be held over Memorial weekend at Strand Lutheran Church.

Daryl was born on June 15, 1937 in Corning, IA to Kenneth and Velma (Mosman) Calkins. He graduated High School in Corning and joined the Army to see the world. It was while he was in service to his country, he met Stefania Steiner.

They were married in 1959 and to the union was born Audrey, Ramona, and Maria.

Daryl and Stefania farmed in Iowa until 1969 when he accepted a banking position in Elm Creek, NE. Daryl was a born entrepreneur and adventurer: having traveled to 18 foreign countries, he also learned to fly and even taught flying at a college.

He and Stefania started a Grain Bin Storage Company for farmers and small Co-ops, then branching out to customized scales.

Daryl will join Stefania in burial at Strand Lutheran Church, the same place they were married and 5 generations of Calkins and Mosman reside.

Although we will miss him, we know God just got a one-of-a-kind treasure and some great advice on farming.

Surviving Daryl are his 3 daughters and 1 Grandchild. His Sisters Roberta Musil, Myrna Maines and her husband Duane.

He was proceeded in Death by his Wife Stefania, his sisters: Carol Trussell, her husband Charles, his Sister Norma and his brother in law Bill Musil.

Tribute Wall

“ Daryl D. Calkins

January 29, 2023 at 11:14 AM

“ Maria,

Sorry to hear of your father's passing. Daryl was truly one of a kind who raised a one of a kind daughter. Our thoughts and prayers are with you and your sisters.

James & Linda Marshall

James Marshall - December 05, 2020 at 05:38 PM