Dean was born July 22, 1936 in the Elm Creek/Overton, NE area to Roy and Virginia (Annable) Beavers. Dean grew up on the family farm in the Elm Creek/Overton area. The farm is where Dean learned the value of a hard day's work. Dean proudly served his country as a member of the Army National Guard. Later in life he worked in the oil fields and had a stint selling insurance. Dean returned to Kearney in the 1950s and started his retail career at Claussen's Shoes in Kearney. On July 22, 1956, he was united in marriage to Wilma Olmstead. Shortly after they would welcome two children, Rustin Dean and Tanya Su. In 1962, Dean joined Redman's Shoes and quickly climbed the ranks, and in 1971 Dean became a partner in the company. Dean poured his life into making Redman's what it is today; a customer-centric cornerstone business in downtown Kearney, Nebraska. For 63 years, Dean put his customers first by providing a one-of-a-kind customer service experience! Dean said it best; "Hell, I'm just an old cowboy who ended up selling shoes."

On January 13, 2005 he was united in marriage to Polly Mattheis. Dean and Polly dedicated their lives to Redman's Shoes. They also enjoyed many happy years traveling, gambling, and raising all kinds of exotic animals like llamas, miniature horses, donkeys, and even fainting goats. They thoroughly cherished their home on the 1733 Ranch.

Dean was preceded in death by his parents; his wife, Wilma; brothers Orval, Bill, Dick, and Levi Beavers; sisters Opal Brodine and Lois Hahn; brothers-in-law Ivan Brodine, Matt Broe, and Ray Hahn; sister-in-law Verla Beavers; step-daughter Stephanie Mattheis; and dear friend and pillar of Redman's Shoes, Darlene Lewis.

“ A Kearney institution for sure. I'm shocked by his passing but I understand he hasn't been able to speak as well as he was used to. Now that his pain is over he can get back to what he loved best, chatting. Imagine the stories being told in heaven right now!

“ On behalf of all of us, the Redman "kids", please know we are thinking about Dean's family and friends and sending our very deepest sympathy at this difficult time. Dean was our dad Joe's most loyal store manager and good friend. He was always kind of a bright light in the store, ready with a joke or a cheerful comment, and consistently warm and welcoming. He made walking into the store fun and working in the store positive and engaging. He had a special way of making everyone feel valued. Dean will be deeply missed, I know. May your memories bring you comfort.
With all of our best wishes,
Nancy and all of the Redman family
