Delila was born on May 4, 1949 in Kearney, NE to Kenneth W. and H. Ruth (Baldree) Gewecke. She attended East 12 elementary school and then attended school in Elm Creek for a few years before the family moved to a farm north of Kearney. At this time, Delila began attending school in Pleasanton. While at Pleasanton she was an all-star volleyball player and set a record for serves there. She graduated from Pleasanton High School with the class of 1967. Delila married Jay J. Hinrichsen on October 24, 1971 at Havens Chapel. She worked at West Company, Sugar Bee Bakery, Daylight

Donuts, Chartwells and also in the concession stands at the Tri-City arena for games/concerts. After she retired, she enjoyed being a season ticket holder with her daughter and going to all the Tri-City Storm home hockey games. She loved to read, was on a bowling league/partners with her husband, enjoyed collecting Indian dolls, putting puzzles together with her husband, playing her casino games on her Ipad and spending all the time she could with her family and friends.

Delila is survived by her husband, Jay of Kearney; daughter, Amber Hinrichsen of Kearney; sister, Karen Brecht of Kearney; brother, Ken Gewecke and his wife Kim of Kearney; numerous nieces, nephews, cousins and other extended family and friends.

Delila was preceded in death by her parents; sister, Linda Marzolf; brother, Rick Gewecke; brother in law, Alan Brecht; nephew, Matthew Brecht
