“ Look no further than the eyes and the faces of Diane’s family to see the joy, the love, the kindness, the strength and the determination that she so selflessly and lovingly gave to those who knew her.

While Diane was not physically there when I visited the family last Friday evening, her spirit, her confidence, her joy and her personality were alive and well in the family and friends gathered there to celebrate her life.

“ Diane was so fun to be around—the memories the Athys have of her were spent along with Whit, Wes and the kids at the campground watching the Huskers, at parties at Whit and Wes’s home including football games and fish fry parties. We will miss her so much, her joyful attitude and constant smile and fun laugh. To the family, sorry we aren’t able to join you to celebrate her life but please know that we are thinking of you and virtual hugs to you all as you mourn her passing. She is your angel.

“ We’ll never forget the week we met Pat, because of Diane, and then Diane and the rest of your beautiful family. United in tragedy then hope then recovery then “life” and now Diane’s freedom from pain. Our hearts break for you all in your loss. Sending love and prayers, Charles, Kristen, and Isaiah Bauer
