“ So very sorry to learn of Dolores' passing. I'll always remember visiting with Dolores on my many trips to Fox's Clothing store! Dolores was the epitome of style and cheerfulness..always put together, and always offering a bright a friendly smile. She and Wayne were an integral part of the Security State Bank family and were great friends of my parents!

How wonderful for both Dolores and Myron to find solace and championship together after the passing of their respective spouses. Deepest sympathies to all. I'm saddened for your loss but blessed to have known this dear lady. May God's embrace welcome her home!
