

Donald "Don" L. Woolley

August 5, 1935 - September 18, 2018

Don was born on Monday, Aug. 5, 1935, in Kearney to Herbert Raymond and Bessie Irene (Sitz) Woolley. He attended country school north of Kearney and graduated from Kearney High School in 1952.

He married Jane Schroeder in Miller on March 29, 1959.

Don served his country for a number of years as a member of the National Guard. He was a charter member of Countryside Christian Church in Kearney, Miller American Legion Post 351 and also a former member of the Patriot Guard.

Don worked as a carpenter and general contractor the majority of his life. His hobbies included hunting, gardening, woodworking, fishing, boating, making stained glass pieces and spending time with his family. He also served as a scoutmaster for all three sons during their Scouting years.

Surviving relatives include his wife of more than 59 years, Jane of Kearney; daughter, Charlene Woolley of Kearney; sons, Lorin Woolley of Hughesville, Pa., Kevin and Missy Woolley of Grover Beach, Calif., and Vincent Woolley of Kearney; grandchildren, Ashlea Woolley, Aaron Woolley, Jamey Muth, Shane Bennetzen and his wife, Lily, and Gator Bennetzen; great-granddaughter, Kierra Sheets; brothers-in-law and sisters-in-law, Shannon and Bonnie Schroeder of Miller and J.H. and Marlys Schroeder of Elizabeth, Colo.; and several other extended family members.

Don was preceded in death by his parents; brother, Wayne in infancy; and brother, Richard.

Memorials are suggested to Summit Christian College or Countryside Christian Church, in care of the family.
