Earl was born on July 8, 1933, in Loup City, Nebraska to Elvin and Wilma

Rademacher. He grew up on a farm near Loup City and graduated from Loup City High School. He earned a bachelor's degree from Nebraska State Teachers College at Kearney and a master's degree from the University of Northern Colorado.

He served in the United States Army from 1954-56 and the Army Reserve from 1956-1962. He was stationed in Japan for 18 months during the Korean Conflict and was honorably discharged.

On December 27, 1959, he married JoAnn White in York, Nebraska. He was a business teacher and coach in Douglas, Nebraska and York, Nebraska. He worked for 36 years at Kearney State College (later the University of Nebraska at Kearney) in several administrative positions and was known as the "Builder" of the UNK campus. He served as interim President in 1982-83. He retired from UNK in 1996 as Vice Chancellor of Business and Finance.

Earl served on numerous community boards, committees and organizations including Good Samaritan Hospital Systems, Kearney Chamber of Commerce, Kearney Kiwanis Clubs, Kearney Tennis Association, Good Samaritan Hospital Foundation, Yanney Heritage Park Foundation, Nebraska Coordinating Commission for Postsecondary Education, First Presbyterian Church, Fort Kearney Chapter American Red Cross, Kearney Quasi-Centennial Committee, Kearney Trolleys, Judicial Nominating Commission for District 6 Nebraska Court of Appeals, Kearney United Way, Buffalo County Merit Commission and Senior College of Central Nebraska.

Honors and awards for Earl include UNK Cope Cornerstone of Excellence Award, UNK Distinguished Service Award, Kearney Chamber of Commerce Friend of Kearney Award, Kearney Kiwanis Clubs Citizen of Year Award, Kearney Hub Freedom Award, UNK Alumni Achievement Award, Admiral in Great Navy of Nebraska, and Sertoma Service to Mankind. A pillar at Yanney

Park was dedicated for Earl's 21 years of service on the Yanney Heritage Park Foundation board.

He loved spending time with family, attending grandchildren's activities, and supporting local sports teams and the St. Louis Cardinals. He enjoyed traveling with JoAnn and playing tennis, golf and bowling. Earl was soft-spoken, humble and loyal.

Earl is survived by his wife JoAnn Rademacher of Lincoln, Nebraska; four children, Steve (Tram) Rademacher of Lincoln, Nebraska, Jane (Ty) Strawhecker of Kearney, Nebraska, Susan (Doug) Doerr of Overland Park, Kansas, and John (Lisa) Rademacher of Kearney, Nebraska; grandchildren Bianca Rademacher, Belinda Rademacher, Briana Rademacher, Jakob Strawhecker, Luke (Megan) Strawhecker, Kaleb Strawhecker, Colin Doerr, Dylan Doerr, Karlee Doerr, Max Rademacher and Samuel Rademacher; brother Gary (Pam) Rademacher of Nebraska City, Nebraska, sister Brenda Anderson of Lincoln, Nebraska, brother-in-law and sister-in-law Bill and Sherry White of Milford, Nebraska, and sister-in-law Kathy Stasch of Brunswick, Georgia.

He was preceded in death by his parents, brother Robert Rademacher, sister-in-law Ellen Rademacher, brother-in-law Ron White, sister-in-law MaryAnn White and brother-in-law Ken Stasch.

“ I will miss Earl more than words can express. I recall his kindness, humility, and support when I joined UNK a few years before he retired. His selfless nature and genuine care for others at UNK is an inspiration to all. Though he has moved on, his legacy of compassion for others will continue to inspire many.
