“ I will always remember what a kind and wonderful aunt Eva was. I loved going to see her, Albert, and the kids with my dad and spending time there. She had such a distinctive voice and I loved hearing her talk.

In a phone call a few years ago she said, at the age of 85 I think it was, that she finally had to give up mowing her own yard! But, she said she still took care of her own flowers. God Bless and keep her.
