Francisco was born June 13, 1941, in El Salvador. He grew up in San Salvador. During his teenage years, Francisco spent his time fixing cars. Being the hard worker that Francisco was, he was always looking for better opportunities. He moved to the United States in the late 1960's and settled in San Francisco, CA. After a few years he moved to Texas. By the late 70's he moved to Kearney where he and his wife Carmen raised their family. Once in Kearney, Francisco worked doing general construction and spent his last 30 plus years as a concrete finisher. Francisco enjoyed playing pool, remodeling his home, and spoiling his grandchildren. He enjoyed watching soccer, Husker football, western movies, and listening to music. His favorite food was anything with sugar.

He is survived by his wife, Carmen Renderos of Kearney, daughters, Janet and husband Leonard Blackman of Las Vegas, NV, Natalie Russell of Kearney, Jacqueline and husband Brandon Neujahr of Kearney, grandchildren Tashanell, Kieshara, Estrella, Adrienne, and Vivienne, and brother, Jose and wife Berta Rosales of Kearney.

Francisco is preceded in death by his mother Juana Rosales, his dad Luis Duran, and his sister Dora Jukam.
