“ Our sincere sympathy to your family. I enjoyed getting to know her at the turtle pool. I worked at UNK library and she at ESU 10 so we had a lot in common. We also shared recipes and gardening talks. What a kind, sweet lovely lady. I will miss her.

“ My deepest sympathies to the entire Mays family. Gaylene was also kind to me while she worked at ESU10 and I was teaching at Gibbon High School. We would often run into each other at the Turtle Pool at Good Samaritan and I so enjoyed our conversations. She will be deeply missed and I hope it provides comfort that she is now free of any pain while rejoicing in heaven.

“ Dear Gary and Family,
I am sorry to hear the news. Your grandpa, grandma, mom and uncle Roger were dear friends when they lived in Ravenna. We had great fun together and it seems only a short while ago. Please know that you are all my thoughts and prayers.
