Gerald was born on April 14, 1933 in Ogallala, NE to Laurence and Alice (Shaw) Dorris. He attended Arthur County Schools where he participated in Football and Basketball and would later graduate with the class of 1952. He enlisted in the United States Army in 1953 and was sent to Fort Belvoir in Virginia for basic training and equipment repair school. He was later sent to the Central Depot at Fort Richardson in Alaska and finally to Fort Lewis in Washington where he was honorably discharged. After the Army, Gerald moved to Los Angeles where he worked for UPS for two years. He then enlisted into the United States Air Force where he served at Luke Air Force

Base in Arizona, Iceland and also ENT Air Force Base in Colorado until his honorable discharge in 1962. He married Jacqueline Kinslow Tucker on October 12, 1961. Gerald and Jackie lived in many different areas including Oregon, Wyoming and Nebraska as Gerald worked as a Heavy Equipment Mechanic for John Deere, Allis Chalmers, Massey Ferguson and others. He would retire in 1989. Jackie passed away in 1997 and Gerald moved back to Nebraska to be closer to family.

He met and would later marry Helen J. Crow Hickenbottom on July 31, 1999 in LeMoyne, NE. The couple would eventually make their home in Kearney. Gerald enjoyed fishing, traveling with Helen and collecting artifacts.

Surviving relatives include his wife, Helen of Kearney; step-children and spouses, Jerry and Kathy Hickenbottom of Kearney; Dick and Joyce Hickenbottom of Holdrege, NE and Sandra and Dick Remmenga of Kearney; brothers and sisters in law, Stan and Phyllis Dorris of Pueblo West, CO, Melvin and D'Ann Dorris of Geneseo, KS; sister, Orma Jean Hawkins of Bend, OR; sister in law, Ramona Dorris of Lemoyne, NE; several nieces, nephews, cousins and other extended family and friends.

Gerald was preceded in death by his parents; first wife, Jacqueline; brother, Wilton Dorris; and brother in law, Don Hawkins

“ I am very sorry for your loss being more difficult with the times the way they are now. We lose the association of others at this time and have to rely on memories shared. I remember the good times, frustrating times and the times when playing cards when we played the cards we were dealt. He will be missed by family and friends.

“ Gerald always had such interesting experiences to share. We will miss the early morning coffee gatherings in days when he was out and about more. He and Helen were a bright spot at Regency and valued friends indeed!
