“ We were neighbors in the early 80's. What a wonderful lady! She was so sweet to us, and adored (and spoiled) our daughter Caitlin when she was born. We will not forget her infamous “nibbies” drawer in her kitchen, what it meant when she brought out the big Tupperware bowl (cinnamon rolls!!), and the fact that our dog Sadie idolized her. Gerry was always a friendly face and we thought of her often after we moved. We truly consider it an honor to have known her. —Dan and Gay Correll
