“Dear Betty and family,

I was sad to hear about your dad. Glad we got a chance to visit when our dads were given those quilts at the American Legion. Dads are certainly irreplaceable, but we retain the love and lessons they gave us.

Please know that you and your family are in my thoughts and prayers at this both difficult and uncertain time.

*Sincerely,

“ Glen was my father-in law, and a good one at that. He treated me like a son, and I asked him to take the place of my deceased father, in which he sad yes. that touched my heart, like no other could. Glen was very honest man, He spoke what was on his mind, and I respected him for doing so. He will be greatly missed by his family- and many others who knew him. Glen-may you rest now in peace, be with your loved ones in spirit. Always in our hearts. Dave Egger-son-in-law.
