“ Grete was a very important person in my life when we both were much younger and lived in Oslo. Grete trained to be a photographer while I trained to become a journalist. Together with a third friend, Jorunn, we formed a tight club based on deep friendship, mutual support and much fun. Later in life our paths separated, but memories of that period of creative friendship stayed with all of us. Grete encountered perhaps more challenges in her life than the rest of the group at the time, but she always had a ready smile and was ready for the next day. Jorunn died a few years ago, she was the oldest one of the group. I just learned today - in late July - that Grete passed away. I am sad that we did not reconnect while there was still time. Astri

“ Grete was One of a Kind. She was such a wonderful host at intimate home parties and her Norwegian rice pudding was divine. She was kind, most of the time, and always was interested in other's lives. She was an expert photographer who was always willing to give advice, both solicited and unsolicited, about my garden photographs. She helped me a lot with understanding photographic equipment and was never a fan of the cell phone cameras. May Her Memory Be A Blessing

“ She was a very nice person I delivered papers to her I brought my dog with so she got to see my dog a few times I would text her to see how she was doing and if she needed anything I helped her a few times when she was sitting outside and sometimes inside of helping her to stand up well with that said sending prayers and very Big Hugs
