“ I worked with Ruddy in Yellowstone in the summer of 1988. He had a beautiful soul. He was a deep thinker and I'm not sure everyone knew that about him. Once we went our separate ways in the fall, we kept corresponding. I still have his letters. He was a fine writer. I am sorry to hear of his passing. It must have been very difficult for his family. I hope they have found some peace.

“ So sorry to hear of your loss. I remember seeing him at the local Sonic here, always gave dedicated service as a carhop and unbelievable to see his obituary here. Did not know him but only professionally as a Sonic customer. Very dedicated to his job.

Condolences in your time of sorrow.
