

Heath R. Kuebler

August 23, 1970 - December 30, 2017

Heath R. Kuebler, 47, of Kearney, died December 30, 2017 at Kearney County Health Services Countryside Living in Minden, Nebraska after a hard fought battle with Multiple Sclerosis. A celebration of Heath's life will be 11:00 am, Monday, January 8, 2018 at Horner Lieske McBride & Kuhl Funeral Chapel with Pastor Thayne Moore officiating. Memorials are suggested to the National Multiple Sclerosis Society.

Heath was born August 23, 1970 in Kearney to Robert and Judy (Ibsen) Kuebler. He graduated from Kearney High school in 1988. He then graduated from University of Nebraska at Kearney in 1992, and went on to receive a Master's Degree. After living in Illinois and Florida, he returned to Kearney and began a career in teaching. Heath loved music and working with students. Heath enjoyed the times spent with family and friends. His love for life and his will to live sustained him through the long battle with this disease. Watching his nieces and nephews grow up was very important to him.

Heath is survived by his parents, Robert and Judy Kuebler of Kearney; sister, Courtney and husband Brian Brightman of Roca, NE; brother Blake and wife Kristi Kuebler of Roca, Ne; nieces and nephews, Spencer, Senna, and Cole Brightman, and Kaelin, Cameron, and Quinn Kuebler; close friend Bill Foster of Kearney; and many aunts, uncles, and cousins.

Heath was preceded in death by his grandparents, Lawrence and Mildred Kuebler, and Dale and Doris Ibsen.

“ Heath was my uncle, he passed away the day we were going to see him on Christmas Eve. My grandma called us and told us that Heath had passed, it took me a while to be happy again but now I know he is free and healthy. I will always love him.

“ Bob, Judy, and family,
Tim and I are deeply saddened to learn of Heath's passing. We both have fond memories of time shared with you and the kids. Our hearts go out to you. We empathize with the depth of your loss and the emptiness, as we lost our Drew in 2016. There are no words to make the pain go away. In time, may you find peace and comfort in the wonderful memories of your dear son.

*Lovingly,
Tim and Heidi Anderson*
