“ God's timing is everything.

A very good friend and mentor of mine, Pastor Jack Heck, was called to glory (quite expectantly) this past October 26th. He was 86 years old. I was reminded of a past president John Quincy Adams while walking slowly along a Boston street on his eightieth birthday. A friend asked him "How is John Quincy Adams today?" The former president replied graciously, "Thank you, John Quincy Adams is well, sir, quite well, I thank you. But the house in which he lives at present is becoming dilapidated. It is tottering upon the foundations. Time and the seasons have nearly destroyed it. Its roof is pretty well worn out, its walls are shattered, and it trembles with every wind. The old tenement is becoming almost uninhabitable, and I think John Quincy Adams will have to move out of it soon; but he himself is quite well, sir, quite well."

That is the attitude that my friend Jack Heck had and that we need to cultivate so that when the call home comes we may say with Paul: "I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith."

Thanks Jack..... I'm a better man for knowing you.

“ *We are so sorry for your loss and are thinking of you at this difficult time. May the Lord wrap you in His comforting arms and give you strength in the coming days.
Rev. Heck touched so many lives in a very profound way, mine included. I am so very blessed to have known this wonderful man.
You are all in our thoughts and prayers.*
