“ It was a pleasure to know Jim. He seemed to always to have a smile on his face. Even when he must have known that his heart "was running out", he had a wonderful attitude. Happy and humble--he was a gem.

“ *Vicki & Shawn,
I have good memories of your father. Condolences to the Belschner family from the Long family in Alexandria, Virginia.*

John C. Long - November 17, 2014 at 12:00 AM

“ Love you all. May God comfort you in his gentle peace. I wish I could be there to help you celebrate Grandpa Jim's life. I am so grateful for him for he brought our family all of you.

Love, Susan

“ Vickii and Shawn, I have just the best memories of your Dad (and Mom) and Belschner;s Store. I remember the deer feeds and the lunch counter and the cold lemonade on those hot Amherst days. When you had a Maul Oil and a Belschner's Store while growing up, what more could you want? Your Dad tolerated the "kids" in Amherst well. What a wonderful man.

“ My condolences to the family. I fondly remember Jim as one of the nicest guys in Amherst, one who always had a smile and never a harsh word for anyone. He will be sorely missed by his family and the community of Amherst.
