Janet was born February 4, 1943 in Springfield, Illinois to Robert and June (Green) Young. She graduated from Lanphier High School and then graduated from Memorial Hospital School of Nursing in Springfield. Janet married James M. Asche on December 11, 1965 in Springfield, Illinois. To this union were born two children, Michael and Jennifer. Janet worked as a Registered Nurse at Mount Carmel, CHI Home Health and Hospice and was Director of Nursing at Mother Hull Home in Kearney, Nebraska. Her faith was very important to her. She was a member of Trinity Presbyterian Church in Springfield, Immanuel Lutheran Church in Columbus, and Holy Cross

Lutheran Church in Kearney. She was on the Board of Parish Life as a chairwoman; Lutheran Women's Missionary League as a secretary, vice president and president; and the Holy Cross Quilters. Janet enjoyed playing bridge, traveling, attending sporting events, and visiting her grandchildren.

Janet is survived by her husband of 54 years James Asche of Kearney; daughter Jennifer (Ruben) Bustamante of Lubbock, Texas; son Michael (Kathy) Asche of Lewisburg, PA; and five grandchildren, Derek Asche, Lauren Asche, Olivia Asche, Collin Bustamante, and Jace Bustamante.

She was preceded in death by her parents and sister Delores Toland.

“ Jim and family,
Our sincere sympathy with Janet's passing. We always remember getting together with you and Janet in Springfield in 1966 when we were looking for a place to live in Illinois.
Janet was always fun to visit with at our class reunions. Cherish all those fond memories of her. God's blessing to you and your family.

“ I had the pleasure of knowing Janet for 30 years. She was never afraid to speak her mind and always had a witty comeback in any conversation. Janet was a great nurse and a champion of elder care. She fought the hard fight against her cancer. Janet-may your light continue to shine bright on the other side. Prayers to the family.
