Janet M. Carman, 84, from Pleasanton, was peacefully called home March 11, 2018 at Mother Hull Home in Kearney. Funeral services will be 10:30 am, Friday at Grace Lutheran Church in Pleasanton with Pastor Dean Hanson officiating. Burial will follow at Pleasanton Cemetery. Visitation will be one hour prior to the service. Memorials are suggested to Grace Lutheran Church or the family to designate later.

Janet was born January 19, 1934, to Earl and Sophia (Kreitzer) Eaton, on the family farm. She attended elementary school at Sunflower School District, southeast of her lifelong home of Pleasanton. She graduated from Pleasanton High School in 1951. She then worked at the Ordinance Plant awaiting the return of her fiancée, Darold (Red) Carman, from duty in the U.S. Army in Korea. They were married on January 4, 1953, and to this union two children were born; Lance Lamont Carman and Cynthia Carman Huff.

Red and Janet were partners in work as well as in life; working on the family farm, operating Pleasanton Market, along with a partnership in Carman Irrigation, Inc., Trotter Fertilizer, and numerous wood working projects. They enjoyed traveling and spending time with family and friends. Janet was a dear friend to many children, opening the door of her home and her heart as easily as she smiled.
