“ *A Note To My Sister Jeanne:
Several acquaintances informed me that you passed a few days ago. I am deeply saddened but despite my emotions I want to share a few words with you. Good times from childhood memories and family gatherings flood my mind as I reflect back over your time on this earth. As a youngster I remember you as ornery, fun loving and a natural desire to help others, hence your transition into the nursing profession. But the most important attribute that I admired about you was the tenacity you displayed over the years in fighting the horrible disease Parkinson's. I sincerely feel your religious beliefs coupled with your strong determination to fight its effects helped you endure the progression of this wicked disease. After much suffering little sister you are now in a place where you can rest in eternal peace. Love you always.
Your brother Bill*

“ *Jeanne was a kind and compassionate woman. She was a good friend and I enjoyed her so much and miss her.
We went to several Bible studies together and she was the person that invited me to Holy Cross after I moved to Kearney. We shared a lot of conversation and coffee in the 10 years that I have known her.
What a strong woman she was.
I know she is rejoicing in heaven.*
