“ Tribute to Jennifer (Feind) Nicol

How to pay tribute to a lady like Jenny?

A woman with strength, courage, and heart unlike any.

She battled and battled with cancer, right to the end.

Doing everything possible to spend more time with her family and friends.

I had the privilege of knowing Jenny as my younger cousin.

We'd only see each other a few times a year at family gatherings.

Never being able to spend much time together, as we lived miles apart.

But knowing we were joined together with those Feind Family roots; joined at the heart.

Watching Jenny from afar, as she became a wife and mother,

Her love for her "boys" was unlike that of any other!

How she managed to do it all, with those 5 little boys at her feet,

Is still a mystery to me, as that couldn't have been an easy feat!

When there was a family gathering to attend, she would be there

No matter the miles to travel or how many boys she brought with her.

I remember being in awe at a Watertown reunion when her kids were quite young,

It would have been easier to stay home and send pictures, but that's not how it was done.

As Jenny's family grew, she would be there to support in whatever endeavor they decided to try.

She knew family was important and time spent together could not be replaced.

Even when battling cancer, she made those times together a priority,

Her pain and treatments would NOT stop her from attending.

*Your family will miss you, much more than you know,
For you were one person they could always count on to listen and to care.*

*Your sweet smile, courageous spirit and hearty laugh,
A few things they will remember and treasure whenever they think of you.*

Jenny, your life taught me a lot about being strong and fighting for what matters, no matter what your circumstances in life.

You were an example of a caring, loving, mother and wife.

Taking time for those you love and being there no matter what you were going through.

Always wanting them to know that THEY were more important than your pain.

We will try to live out the things you have taught us so well,

Until one day we meet again in Heaven to dwell.

There we will ALL be free of hurt, pain, and disease,

And able to live, love, and laugh,

All that we please.

“ Jenn was a great person to be around and a wonderful person to get to know! She worked tirelessly through her illness and not one day, that I spoke to her, did she ever complain about her situation or illness. I truly admired her strength and steadfast willingness to press through her condition by refusing to let it steal her joy. I could not speak more highly of someone who faced such a large challenge. She will be missed by all of the HSC and Cushing personnel at UNK.
