“ John was one of the most memorable patients I have ever had the pleasure of caring for. He was bright, kind, and understanding. His sense of humor withstood the most exhaustive and painful times a person ever lives through. He was courteous but particular and knew exactly what he wanted and who he wanted it from. He was not afraid to voice his opinion. We spent a lot of time together in his last months here. I will never forget him.

“ *John Hisey was my grandfather. We had a connection and I would send him letters all the time. We would play Five Thousand and I would always beat him and he said he would take me to Las Vegas and would tell jokes. His last words to me was, Happy Birthday, Emma. I LOVE YOU!
I wish I could say Happy Birthday to him... I will miss you Papa John and I will make you happy.*

“ Hey there "Wild Man", you know that was my favorite nickname for you. I will not say good-bye, I will say "So Long" I know we will meet again one day. You must have had quite a conversation with the "bingo" gods because I won four games Tuesday night. I was proud to have the opportunity to ring your bell and give you a proper send off at Knights of Columbus bingo. Perhaps they will smile upon me Friday night at the Legion bingo and I will be able to give you a proper salute there also. Tell Sis Hi for me and I will see her again when the Goof Lord calls me home.
