Our prayers and much love for Ellen and Family as they gather tomorrow for John's memorial service and for strength to face the days ahead. John was a great friend, always beaming and sporting a twinkle in his eye that had you know another crazy funny story was about to be shared, and most importantly, a tireless soldier for Jesus Christ. His dedication to his faith will carry on through the witness of those he served and inspired with his teaching, ministry, and testimony. Your faith lives on, John, in all of us whom you loved and served dearly. It was so easy to love you back.
