Arvard was born August 4, 1927 in rural Kearney County to Ray and Louise (Nickel) Neal. He graduated from Kearney High School in 1945. He was married to Wilma (Thomsen) Neal in 1950. The couple lived for two years in Killeen, Texas, while Arvard served in the Army. They returned to near Fort Kearny in 1953 where they farmed until his retirement in 1992.

Arvard was an active member of the First United Methodist church and served on the Building Committee after the church was lost in a fire in 1969. He also proudly served on the Rural Fire District for several years. He enjoyed playing softball, horseshoes, and bowling.

Arvard is survived by his children, Tim (Kathy) Neal of Fort Collins, CO, Lori

Neal of Des Moines, IA and Pam (Doug) Reinert of West Des Moines, IA; 6 grandchildren; 7 great grandchildren; and a sister, Arlette Neal of Kearney.

He was preceded in death by his wife Wilma; parents; and a sister, Arlene.

“ Our hearts are saddened at the passing of our former wonderful neighbor, Arvard and of Wilma two years ago. Farming near them over many years in the Newark community was a rich experience that we will never forget. God's blessings to you and your family with our sympathy as this chapter in your lives passes into memory.
