

Kate Holland Harms

March 30, 2013 - April 2, 2013

Kate Holland Harms arrived in this world early on the morning of March 30th, 2013 to her parents Caleb and Joni Harms of Aiken, SC. Kate was not meant long for this world, but in the short time she shared with us, she reminded us of the importance of fully and completely surrendering to the will and perfect plan of our Heavenly Father. On the afternoon of April 2, 2013, we were blessed to hold our sweet Kate for the first time as she was ushered into the throne room of Grace to meet her Creator face to face. "Death has been swallowed up in victory. Where, O death, is your victory? Where, O death, is your sting?.....thanks be to God! He gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ." I Cor. 15:54b 57. Now, just as before, we continue to ask that God would continue to work His mighty will. Kate is survived by her loving parents, Caleb and Joni Harms of Aiken SC, sister Halle, grandparents Emmit and Ann Bosshamer of Amherst, NE and Kevin and Linda Harms of Madrid, NE, and a host of aunts, uncles, and cousins. A graveside service for Kate will be held at 12:00 p.m. at Immanuel Lutheran Cemetery (north of Amherst) on Saturday April 6, 2013. Vicar Bill Heermann and Rev. Jack Heck will officiate. All who wish to attend are welcome to do so. A time of fellowship for family and friends will be held immediately afterward at the home of Brian Bosshamer.
