“ Kim was such a proud mother to Ross and Thea. Her kids were everything to her. All she wanted to do was be a mom. I watched her this last year to be there for them and show how you can fight through anything.

I am very proud of her.

“ Mike, Ross and Thea-I am so sorry for your loss. It's hard to understand how someone so young can be taken but someone higher than us makes that call. “ So sad...I'm thinking of all of you. I remember that sweet little girl who came to my house at R-Villa and brightened my day every time. There's no doubt she was a loving girl who brought a special charm to her own dear family. Treasure her impact on your lives.
Love,
Mary

“ Kimberly,

Thank you for being my sister. Through the good and bad, we remained a team and we remained friends.

I'll always treasure the days we shared a bedroom. The time you fed my new Baby Alive doll hot tar. The time we went to Florida on vacation together and you couldn't read the map. The excitement we shared as you got married. The pride you had when Ross and Thea were born. Your joy as your children grew-up and the stories they gave us to talk about during our long conversations on the phone.

Then you got sick, but as sick as you were, we still laughed, a lot! We ate Froot Loops with Morris. We had our blue popsicle parties every night when you could eat. We had our version of Spring Break in the hospital room with the nurses joining in on the fun...the 'sun' from the bright light above your bed, the 'cocktails' by way of anti-rejection medications, the Beach Boys music brought in by the nurses, and don't forget all the people who saw you without some of your clothes on...just like any good Spring Break!

Not only are you a role model for Ross and Thea, you are my role model, too. Goal accomplished and more!!

I have missed you from the moment you passed away and I will miss you for the rest of my life.

Your Sister Daniece
