“ To Marilyn and family. Mary and I were very sad to hear of Larry's passing. Although we have not see you or Larry in several years, you were always in our hearts and mind. We can reminisce of the first tie we met you as a substitute bowler for our neighbors at the time, Danny and Sandy Grim, may they RIP. Those were fun times. And, of course, Larry and I shared office space at Woodridge Plaza for many years and became friends. He was my trusted CPA at the beginning of my medical career. He always was a gentleman in his professional life as well as a golfer at Kearney Country Club. He lived a long and productive life

“ We first met Larry and Marilyn on a bus tour to the Carolinas. We continued our friendship by going out to eat a few times a year since 2010. They spent one Thanksgiving with us. Larry's compliment to me was "I'm impressed with how you got all this food on the table and it was just the right temperature and so very good!" We have enjoyed a very special friendship with them.
