After working in Colorado Springs, she moved back to the farm in Odessa. She was employed at Jacobsen Orr, Lindstrom & Holbrook in Kearney as a Litigation Paralegal for 14 years until retirement this last June.

"I'm dead. That sucks at least for my family and friends". But all the tears in the world aren't going to bring me back, so I would prefer that people remember the good things about me rather than mourning my loss. If it turns out a specific number of tears will, in fact bring me back to a healthy life then by all means, break out the onions."

“ LeAnn and I met through a work relationship in the legal sector and continued to share a friendship for years which of course included Abigail. I will never forget when coming into her offices she would say as Abigail gave me a lick, that "...she was just cleaning off a spot before she bites ya!" Not true at all, but still funny. She always had a smile for you, with beautiful eyes and her very dry sense of humor. I know that those of us that knew her in varying degrees, will miss her!

Leann was my wives (Barbara Snider Mattson) niece. I remember her growing up and playing with our children our children. Often we visited her parents farm south of Odessa. I'm so glad that my boys could get together with Patty and LeAnn one last time at their house up north in Kearney. Able to get a picture of all of them together. ❤️❤️

“ I just learned of Leann's passing and so very sad. I knew LeAnn in the late 70's, early 80's and just remember this beautiful lady and friend. Fly high LeAnn. 🙏🙏

“ LeAnn was a great neighbor and quickly becoming a good friend. She was fun and funny. She loved her family and animals. I believe she had a quiet faith in God and choose to be with Jesus in eternity. She will be missed on this planet and her absence leaves a LeAnn sized void we can only fill with her memory for now.
